Dear Parent/Carer

Happy New year and welcome back to all our Year 11 students.

One of the pieces of feedback we have been getting from parents is that their child knows they need to start revising, but are struggling to motivate themselves to do this at home. We are therefore going to be holding compulsory study sessions on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday after school from 3pm until 5 pm in the library. These will be staffed by two members of the Raising Standards team. Students will be revising independently but, with parental agreement, we will make it compulsory that they attend. If you feel this is something that would benefit your child please email me (hockridger@philipmorant.essex.sch.uk) and I will either email you a confirmation or call you to discuss this. For these sessions to have the maximum impact expectations of behaviour will be extremely high. If students are not meeting these expectations, then we will unfortunately not allow these students to attend future sessions.

Currently many of our Year 11 are resitting mock exams after school. This is good practice and helps students improve their examination technique. If there is a subject that you feel your child could benefit from more exam practice in, please let us know and we will try to arrange this.

Just to keep you informed about upcoming events and letters to look out for:

- We are currently arranging another parent revision information evening. A letter will be sent out with full details in the next week.
- A repeat of the revision guide ordering letter will be sent out within the fortnight.
- The next key date for Year 11 students will be the week beginning on the 25th of February. During this week students will sit another set of mock examinations in English, Maths and Science.

Finally, please do keep an eye on the Year 11 Parents and Students Facebook page.

Many thanks
